When your glorious tomb opened – She'ol was – in mourning
The women arrived and wept – to the angel:
"Who removed him from the tomb
And placed Him in another?
Who will tell us about His – Resurrection?"

At once, the fiery angel – instructed – the women
"The Messiah is risen – and is not here
Go, speak to His disciples
He will be in Galilee
There, you will see the glory – of His rising".

When they heard those joyful words – they ran to – spread the news
To the Apostles gathered – in the Upper Room
"Behold, the Lord has slain death
And has freed its prisoners
Go gather in Galilee – to see our Lord".

The eleven Apostles – gathered in – Galilee
There, they met the slain bridegroom – who had risen
He took them to Mount Olive,
Stretched out His hand and bless'd them
And ascended, promising – to send the Spirit
